

Recall Stone

Player-facing description

A smooth grey pebble feels warm and ordinary until it refuses to stay where you put it. Set it down, look away, and it waits back in your palm.

Public role

Recall Stone: place it anywhere, set a trigger, and it teleports back to your hand when the trigger happens.

Handout text

GOLDWATER RECALL ASSURANCE: Why carry an unregistered stone when you could lease ours, with quarterly recall fees and a Recall Recall Clause?

GM truth

No forced reveal. Let this entity disclose truth through scene context and player attention.

GM handling

Use when the scene needs a concrete object for players to inspect, carry, debate, or remember.

Mechanics

- Title: Discovery / Earn-It Mechanics
- Player Safe: Players can inspect, handle, keep, trade, reveal, or earn Recall Stone when it is present in the fiction.
- Gm Only: Use the roll only when the player's method, stakes, and consequence are concrete.
- No Roll Reveals: Surface read: A smooth grey pebble feels warm and ordinary until it refuses to stay where you put it. Set it down, look away, and it waits back in your palm. Give obvious visible facts freely; roll for meaning, risk, leverage, cost, or a hidden angle.
- Rolls: entity-recall-stone-engage-recall-stone entity-recall-stone Engage Recall Stone Engage Recall Stone Knowledge Finesse Instinct Presence Knowledge Finesse, Instinct, Presence 12 Choose the trait from the player's method, not the entity type. A flat read of Recall Stone hides the cost, motive, or useful next step. Critical Success: best possible version of the action; gain Hope and clear 1 Stress. Add an extra benefit that follows from the fiction. Success with Hope: the PC gets what they wanted and gains Hope. Keep the position clean or generous. Success with Fear: the PC gets what they wanted, but the GM gains Fear and introduces a cost, complication, or pressure. Failure with Hope: the PC does not get the full result, but gains Hope and receives a useful thread, clue, or safer next option. Failure with Fear: the PC fails and the GM gains Fear. Make a hard move that follows from the...

- Fear Spends: Reveal who benefits from the current situation. Make the cost personal without closing off player agency.
- Condition Options: No official condition unless the item or clue physically creates Hidden, Restrained, or Vulnerable
- Search Loot: Recall Stone: place it anywhere, set a trigger, and it teleports back to your hand when the trigger happens. Provenance: Find, purchase, trade, or receive as a reward.

Daggerheart item grammar: weapon or offensive consumable; use the listed trait/range/damage/effect exactly as written here. Set a trigger: proximity, damage in very close range, elapsed time, or spoken keyword. On trigger it teleports to the owner's hand. The player gains the listed effect, leverage, clue, access, protection, or fictional permission when the item is earned. Use the maker, label, condition, and provenance to say what the item means in the world before explaining what it does. Use when the item is worn, consumed, presented, inspected, traded, or applied in the fiction. If the item is a consumable, it is spent after use. If it is evidence or access, it creates leverage instead of a combat bonus. Give the item freely when the...
