- Block4: The place changes even if the PCs stand still. Local people, creatures, weather, signage, and ward behavior all keep moving around the scene. Survey logic can damage what keeps the farms alive. The wrong path crushes delicate beds. Ward weakness shows in crop behavior before alarms. A row dims as the Keystone passes. A survey stake hums louder than the ward post. Let the place be funny through overconfident signage, awkward forms, stubborn local habits, and magic that refuses corporate language.
