

The Umbrand Consortium

Player-facing description

A rumor about goods that arrive after official supply says they cannot.

Public role

Necessity-smuggling rumor and future-campaign seed

Handout text

The Umbrand Consortium: a future-thread rumor about necessities that arrive after official supply says no.

GM truth

GM-only future seed: leave Umbrand unresolved unless Kyle opens the scarcity-market arc at the table.

GM handling

Future thread only; at most a black-market rumor.

Mechanics

- Title: Faction Pressure / Reputation Mechanics
- Player Safe: Players can read public face, negotiate leverage, track reputation, or identify pressure The Umbrand Consortium when it is present in the fiction.
- Gm Only: Use the roll only when the player's method, stakes, and consequence are concrete.
- No Roll Reveals: Surface read: The Umbrand Consortium is the rumor of a crate that arrives after the market says survival is out of stock. Give obvious visible facts freely; roll for meaning, risk, leverage, cost, or a hidden angle.

- Player Safe: The Umbrand Consortium A rumor about goods that arrive after official supply says they cannot. If you needed it, it was never legal. The Umbrand Consortium is the rumor of a crate that arrives after the market says survival is out of stock. Umbrand stories smell like wet rope, unmarked wood, and favors nobody wants written down. They are not glamorous smugglers. They are the answer to a locked pantry, a restricted medicine shelf, and a village told to wait for authorized mercy. Someone mentions an unmarked crate that reached a house after the official supply route closed. Nobody says thank you loudly. Nobody asks who carried it.
- Block1: The Umbrand Consortium Umbrand the necessity smugglers A rumor about goods that arrive after official supply says they cannot. GM-only seed: smuggle restricted necessities through markets that made need illegal. Future thread only; at most a black-market rumor. Unknown; do not turn rumor into a contact in this pass.
