

S02-02 - Eyes in the Brush

Player text

The road feels watched. A branch snaps where no wind moved it. The hybrid animals have gone quiet: lark-moths, fox-bats, all of them holding their breath the way you are holding yours. Something is keeping pace with you in the brush, and it is not an animal.

Public objective

Notice the threat before it reaches you.

GM goal

Run the ambush spot check and fold in the strixwolf carryover before the road breaks open.

GM notes

- This is dread into snap: quiet, tell, roll, ambush.
- Mercy carryover is a mechanical reward, but the exact canon weight remains a Kyle confirmation flag.

GM script

Say: "The forest has gone quiet in a way your bodies understand before your minds do. Make an Instinct roll against Difficulty 14. Beat it and you see them before they move. Miss it and they get the jump." If the strixwolf was calmed or helped, add: "A distant hoot gives you one heartbeat of warning. Take an advantage die." If the strixwolf was killed or left blood-debt behind, add: "The forest gives no warning this time."
