

Sablewood? Logistics Preserve

Hook

An ancient forest logistics preserve where colossal trees, hybrid fauna, underroot communities, route tolls, and corporate liability language all compete to define what safety means.

Arrival Read

Sablewood is an ancient forest forced to wear a logistics badge: colossal trunks, liability signs, toll language, and living routes that do not care about forms.

Known For

The trees go up until the sky closes over, and the light that reaches the road is green and always moving. A vest-badge nailed to a trunk reads Sablewood Logistics Preserve, and a hundred yards on the same kind of trunk has swallowed an older sign whole...

What Is Here

Local residents or workers appropriate to the place Cat-Squirrels leap limb to limb and knock dew from leaves Giraffe-Deer step over the road as if wagons are very short problems Lemur-Toads gossip-click from rain hollows and go silent when large predators...

Food And Texture

Trade here moves in waxed parcels and field rations, hard bread, smoked strips, larkmoth honey scraped out of orchid hollows. A toll-post sells the same dried fruit it confiscated that morning. Lemur-toads watch you...
