How It Works

NPC / Community Trust Track: A module-facing tracker for rapport with a person or settlement.

Try It

How does trust change play?

You Could

- Use when repeated choices change how warm, candid, generous, or guarded an NPC/community becomes.
- High trust makes help warmer and clearer. Low trust still lets play continue, but with distance, fewer gifts, or harder social positioning.
- Return to the fiction with the concrete result, cost, or benefit.
