

Fire-Falcons

Player-facing description

Three falcons watch from charred branches. Their feathers glow at the edges like coals under ash, and every head turns at once.

Public role

Violent light-bearing Sable Sinecure companion birds

Handout text

Player-safe note: Sleek ember-orange falcons with coal-black wing tips and feather edges like banked fire, beautiful enough for prestige and sharp enough to make a cache feel watched.

- Personality: Beauty bred into a weapon. Banked-fire feathers the wealthy buy for spectacle and the Sinecure trains for harm. Loyal to whoever feeds them, sharp to everyone else, and aware, somewhere, that they are admired far more than they are loved.
- Wants: To hunt, to be fed by a steady hand, and to keep the high perch they have claimed.
- Fears: Being chained for display, the smell of a stranger's fear, and losing their handler's voice in a crowd.
- Secrets: No forced reveal. Let this entity disclose truth through scene context and player attention.
- Body Language: Mantle their wings to show the coal-black tips like a drawn blade. Snap toward sudden movement, then preen as if nothing happened.
- Sample Dialogue: A bright scaling shriek that turns every head across a market. A low warning chitter as the feathers along their backs begin to glow.
- Equipment: Table texture: spoor, tool marks, route tags, charm scraps, shed material, or local testimony tied to this Sablewood entry. ember feathers coal-black wing tips bright warning eyes charred branch perches
