soulspire Soulspire Solutions Comforting soul insurance and afterlife services sold as peace of mind. Soulspire?: rest easy, we'll handle the rest. Soulspire Solutions? sells peace of mind now and, once the debt outlives you, repossesses the soul that had it. Everything about Soulspire? is soothing on purpose: lavender light, a hushed lobby, a counselor in soft grey who calls death a 'transition event' and your grief a 'coverage gap.' Brochures for the Eternal Comfort Plan? show smiling families and a tasteful urn; the waiting-room hymn loops a wellness ballad about rest. Sign the Afterlife Assurance? and you will feel genuinely better, which is the point, because page forty-seven of the same friendly packet is where a person legally stops being one and becomes, in their cheerful internal term, a 'continuing contributor.' The undead on the night roads are not monsters. They are accounts in good standing. A Soulspire pamphlet folds open like a condolence card. The ink is blue-black, the border is tasteful, and the little painted candle at the top...
