- Personality: Keeps a dying signal alive out of sheer refusal. Wears braids threaded with bells tuned to far spires; two of them no longer ring, and she will not remove them, because silence is still evidence.
- Wants: Be heard before the relay failure becomes someone else's ruin.
- Fears: A bell ringing with no one left to answer it.
- Secrets: The exact cause of the failing relay remains future-story material.

- Body Language: Give it one tactile detail when introduced. Connect it to a choice, clue, or consequence.
- Sample Dialogue: The relay does not answer. A cold bell rings once, then stops with the rope still trembling.
