Tall carved stones with mossy grooves and offerings that are always fresh, where the light lingers a half-second too long in the gaps between them. The Stones of the Vale glow blue at the edges, as if old protection is waking up angry and tired. The Stones of the Vale are quiet and old: carved grooves, offerings, flowered grass, light between stones, and a sense of being measured by something patient. The place breaks into usable table spaces: Outer stones: Tall stones frame the approach. Offering hollow: Small gifts reveal local relationship to the place. Light gap: A gap between stones catches light unnaturally. Plants and materials: stone flowers, groove moss, short sweet grass, tiny rootlets in carvings. Animals and background life: crickets, small birds, patient pollinators, lizards warming on stone. The air carries stone warmth, quiet wind, light alignment, low ward resonance. The stones...
