- Gmgoal: Use this as the GM-only / sharp-PC corporate lens on the same village: official signage, compliance stamps, ledgers, and the gap between the label and the people.
- Publicobjective: Near the village entrance, a polished official sign and neat route stones sit beside handmade clover charms and scuffed local paths. The sign looks newer than the place, and colder.
- Readaloud: Near the village entrance, a polished official sign and neat route stones sit beside handmade clover charms and scuffed local paths. The sign looks newer than the place, and colder.
- Gmscript: Say: "Player-facing, this is just the official sign at Hush. GM-facing, it is the corporate lens: the place as paperwork, not the place as people."
- Gmreadaloud: The sign is polished. The local charms are handmade and thumb-worn. The gap between those two facts is the whole point.
- Gmchecklist: Do not project the trademarked/corporate framing unless earned. Use this map for Barnacle/Garrick/Marlowe corporate-seam reads. Route back to Hush, the market, Co-op, or farms.
- Gmprivate: GM-only: Hush is logged as managed protective infrastructure. This is a seed, not a reveal.

- Playertakeaway: Near the village entrance, a polished official sign and neat route stones sit beside handmade clover charms and scuffed local paths. The sign looks newer than the place, and colder.
- Storytakeaway: The official sign shows the first visible gap between lived community and corporate classification.
- Mechanictakeaway: Instinct or Knowledge 13 can read the official seam and set ward_awareness or hush_clues.

The sign looks newer than the place, and colder. Use this as the GM-only / sharp-PC corporate lens on the same village: official signage, compliance stamps, ledgers, and the gap between the label and the people. A polished official sign and neat route stones frame a village that keeps interrupting the label with charms, scuffed paths, and hand repairs. The entry ward hums unevenly; someone inside laughs, then lowers their voice; a sign chain taps in the damp wind.

- Percharacterlayer: garrick-reed Garrick Reed Management under warmth Notices the town logistics run with corporate efficiency under the folksy surface. Instinct 13 There are company minders in Hush dressed as ordinary locals. Can talk crew-to-crew with ex-company locals and earn practical trust. Garrick, under the warmth, this town runs like a company op. Want to read who is minding it? khari-nix Khari Nix Trusted protector Protective people recognize her as protective and confide faster. Can be the one a worried local trusts with the keeper's location. Khari, they want to tell you where she is. Want to be the one they trust with it? barnacle Barnacle Paperwork seam Finds the supply manifests, tucked compliance office, and tiny signs that safety has an owner. Instinct 13 Hush is registered and inventoried; a managed place wearing a village's face. Keep the label GM-gated. Can find who handles records without making the table listen to a lore dump. Barnacle, peel back the charm and there is paperwork. - Takeawayhelp: Player takeaway Players can inspect the official sign without receiving the corporate reveal. "The sign is official and newer than the place. The locals mostly ignore it." "You can ask what locals call the village, study the marks, or move deeper toward the warm parts of town." Player-safe language is official sign, official marks, and local name. Keep the trademarked/corporate lens GM-only until earned. instinct knowledge Story takeaway The sign frames the gap between a living place and a managed asset. "The village feels older, warmer, and more stubborn than the label trying to sit on it." "Sharp read: the paperwork is not decoration. It records protection as infrastructure." This is a seed for later reveals; it should create suspicion, not an answer key. instinct knowledge Mechanic takeaway Instinct or Knowledge can turn signage into a clue. "Instinct 13 catches who watches you notice the sign. Knowledge 13 reads what the stamps legally describe." "A success can set hush_clues=corporate_seam or ward_awareness=seed." Use this map when Barnacle/Garrick/Marlowe want to pull at the paperwork layer. instinct
