The Lucent River carries blue light through Sablewood like a road that refuses to become a road. Keep magical water physical: cold, useful, dangerous, and shared. Water glows under shadowed banks, turning ropes, stones, and boat hulls blue from below. River traffic moves by practiced rhythm instead of posted schedule. The brightest eddies gather near old wardstone fragments. Leaf-drip, insects, distant wingbeats, and animal calls that stop or resume according to pressure, not comfort. Cold mineral water, river weeds, wet cedar, and the faint sweetness of luminous algae. Spray leaves fingers tingling; rope lines are slick with blue residue. The forest is populated even when no NPC is present; silence, birds, insects, and tracks are actionable signals.
