

S05-02 - The Ritual Begins

Player text

The Custodian lets out a shrill cry. "The Keystone has finally responded! Surround me, the ritual must begin or I'll lose the pathway! Hurry!" Her glow swells, her eyes roll back, and the carriage lifts a foot off the ground. From the woods comes a chorus of unearthly screeches. The ground rumbles. Rusted swords break the surface as dead things claw their way up. In the distance, two shapes drift toward you, screeching, wrong. Hold the line until she's done.

Public objective

Begin the defense and understand the countdown.

- Caption: The ritual becomes visible pressure: protect the Custodian and drive the countdown to zero.
- Mood: The Ward Renewal
- Gmgoal: Start the ritual, show the first threats, and put the countdown die on the table.
- Publicobjective: Begin the defense and understand the countdown.
- Readaloud: The Custodian lets out a shrill cry. "The Keystone has finally responded! Surround me, the ritual must begin or I'll lose the pathway! Hurry!" Her glow swells, her eyes roll back, and the carriage lifts a foot off the ground. From the woods comes a chorus of unearthly screeches. The ground rumbles. Rusted swords break the surface as dead things claw their way up. In the distance, two shapes drift toward you, screeching, wrong. Hold the line until she's done.
- Gmnotes: Market Correction is available as a GM pressure valve, not player-facing terminology.
- Gmscript: Say: "d8, starting at 8. Defeat an enemy or remove a real pressure, it ticks down one. She gets hit or exposed, it ticks up one. At zero, the ritual is done and you win. The math is simple; staying alive is not."
- Gmreadaloud: "The Keystone has finally responded! Surround me, the ritual must begin or I'll lose the pathway!" The carriage lifts a foot off the ground. Rusted swords break the surface as dead things claw their way up. Two shapes drift in the distance, screeching, wrong.

- Gmchecklist: Place Custodian center, PCs around her, 4 rusted-sword skeletons Close, and 2 screeching wraiths Far. Set ritual_countdown=8. If ward_stability=stable, soften the first exposure or give a prepared defense a free success beat; if fragile or missing, full canon pressure. If ritual_prep=ready, let the prepared PC explain the countdown in character. Initialize protected_whom as unresolved and start watching who covers whom.
- Gmprivate: Use description before names: rusted-sword dead, floating screeching wraiths. Names and deeper meaning can come after the table understands what they see.
- Playertakeaway: This is the fight that ends the story: keep her safe and run the clock down.
- Storytakeaway: The ritual is live and irreversible now; the only way out is through.
- Mechanictakeaway: The countdown die is the win condition: d8 starts at 8, down on enemy defeat or pressure removed, up when the Custodian is hit.

- Takeawayhelp: Player takeaway This is the fight that ends the story: keep her safe and run the clock down. "Surround her. Drop what comes. Do not let them touch her. Get the die to zero." "Pick a threat, body-block the Custodian, or call a target. Every enemy down is a tick toward the end." Make the next action obvious for overwhelmed players. countdown fear difficulty Story takeaway The ritual is live and irreversible now; the only way out is through. "No stopping this now. She is committed. The clock is running, and it runs on how well you protect her." "The dead are clawing up and the wraiths are drifting in because the magic woke something that answers pressure."
