- Block4: The place changes even if the PCs stand still. Local people, creatures, weather, signage, and ward behavior all keep moving around the scene. Falling is survivable but not consequence-free. Ignoring catchers' calls wastes the people protecting the route. A frayed net shows maintenance debt. A cradle catches something heavy out of sight. A catcher cuts a rope and does not explain until after it saves someone. Let the place be funny through overconfident signage, awkward forms, stubborn local habits, and magic that refuses corporate language.
