

EPILOGUE - Epilogue: Beyond the Contract

Player text

The screeching is gone. The clearing is quiet, the open sky calm. Somewhere west, a city you may never see is waking up safe because of what you did tonight. The Custodian is already shuffling you back toward warmth and food and a fire that does not want anything from you. For the first time since the road, there is nothing chasing you. You won. Sit with that a while.

Public objective

Rest, reckon with what you did, and decide what you carry forward.

GM goal

Land the plane: reward the heroes, let the table breathe, then leave one official door and one optional hidden door open.

GM notes

- Conclusion-only section: no combat, no countdown, no new active crisis.
- Use `epilogue_tone` to tune warmth, grief, or relief without changing the reward-first order.

GM script

Say: "No more fighting. This is the breath after. You earned it. We are going to level up, collect rewards, say goodbyes, and decide which doors stay open."
