

Vela Bramblewick

Hook

a scout who would rather carry a warning than a blade

Public Read

A wiry Bramble scout peers from a thorn-woven hood, jaw clenched, blue charm bright against layered leaf armor and stolen road scraps.

Comes Across As

Quick, anxious, and proud of being trusted with eyes instead of a weapon. Clicks a green stone against her teeth when she thinks. Wants the camp to keep listening to her more than she wants this fight to happen.
