Vibrant, painted, moss-lit Bramble Union communities camouflaged behind mudstone walls and thorn protection. The Bramble Union villages are vibrant behind protection: painted mudstone, thorn screens, moss lamps, and people tired of being scenery in someone else's route. These are living communities under pressure, not bandit camps. Gardens, repair-fires, children's paths, watch points, hunger, pride, and a great deal of defensive improvisation. The place breaks into usable table spaces: Screened entry path: Bramble walls hide where the village begins. Shared hearth: Food, tools, and argument gather at the center. Scrap ward yard: Stolen or salvaged charms are sorted and repurposed. Lookout trees: Watchers can see the road before the road sees them. Plants and materials: bramble screens, root gardens, edible weeds, thorn vines trained into fences. Animals and background life: lean chickens, forest mice, watch birds trained with scraps...
