A Sablewood trade point where route knowledge, watches, and liability-backed bargains change hands above or beside the old wood. Duskwatch Exchange is where route knowledge changes hands quietly, because the forest charges more for ignorance. Duskwatch Exchange is a trade post at the hour when everyone wants business done before dark: lantern counters, route boards, package yards, food smoke, and tired guards. The place breaks into usable table spaces: Lantern counters: Merchants trade goods under warm low light. Watch platform: A raised lookout watches road, sky, and crowd. Package yard: Crates, straps, seals, and arguments make terrain. Plants and materials: dusty hedge rows, lantern herbs, tough road weeds. Animals and background life: pack beetles, courier birds, dusk moths, tired road ponies. The air carries lantern smoke, bell calls, seal wax smell, twilight chill. Business peaks at dusk, then the exchange becomes watchful...
