- Gm Use: Store the future-thread canon here so one-shot clues can point forward without becoming a speech.
- Secrets: The forest is not the enemy. Corporations manufacture fear of the Preserve to sell protection from it.
- Body Language: Use only as a prep reference. Surface clues through props, invoices, remains, and testimony.
- Sample Dialogue: GM note: do not hand this to players.
- Equipment: The Grail posts bounties and hazard notices. Protection Coverage sells to communities like Hush, with prices climbing alongside sightings. Soulspire supplies, looses, owns, or attracts dangerous soul-resonant assets. Kazrak holds the Preserve concession and reclassified the workers who became the Bramble Union. The capital ward depends on old forest-magic while the system fear-sells the forest.
- Search Or Loot: No loot. Treat this as a private continuity note for future sessions.
- Future Hooks: The failing Goldspire Relay is the on-ramp. One-shot clues become future leads: pre-written hazard tag, Bramble testimony, Soulspire remains, rising-cost ledger. Connections upward to the Continuance Protocol, Soulspire's soul-fuel economy, and the Endless of Truth stay GM-only.
- Robust: GM-only continuity reference. Do not show as a player handout. The forest is not the enemy. Corporations manufacture fear of the Preserve to sell protection from it. Private GM note page. In play, it appears only as paperwork, invoice timing, audit remains, and contradictory local memory. Wants every future clue to preserve the same loop: hazard notice, protection sale, soul-signal extraction, concession reclassification, and forest-magic dependency. Fails if it becomes a monologue, a player-facing answer key, or a reason to undercut the party's real victory in Hush. Use this page to keep the manufactured-threat clues consistent across future sessions while keeping the one-shot surface plot intact. GM continuity check N/A Seed one clue that helps future sessions without explaining the conspiracy. Reveal a concrete object or testimony and let players ask the next question. Reveal the clue, but attach institutional attention or social cost. Keep the clue partial and point to a safer later lead. Withhold the answer and let the official story become more dangerous. Spend Fear to make a future report, audit tag, or insurance rider arrive at the worst possible moment. Loreborne: follow...
