- Personality: Warmth as a vocation, keeping the roads human by carrying jokes, names, and warnings between villages. Knows by touch which house-charm marks a favor owed and which marks one owing. Fears a world where every road belongs to a toll and every story to an office.
- Wants: Trade stories, find a safe supper, and learn what trouble is moving through town.

- Fears: A world where every road belongs to a toll and every story to an office.
- Secrets: Yikyik hears more than he repeats, especially when a rumor might get someone hurt.
- Body Language: Give it one tactile detail when introduced. Connect it to a choice, clue, or consequence.
- Sample Dialogue: Friend, I have been to that village, and they still owe me a song. Sit, eat, tell me what is moving through your town. A notice calls them bandits. I have eaten at their fire. Which of us would you believe?
- Equipment: Table texture: spoor, tool marks, route tags, charm scraps, shed material, or local testimony tied to this Sablewood entry. Vial of Briarpowder
- Search Or Loot: Search yields context first: spoor, warning marks, tool scratches, route signs, or local testimony unless a scene names treasure. Loot / item link: Vial of Briarpowder (Trade, gift, or harvested from the Briar.).
