

Disposition / Resolution Track

What it is

A module-facing tracker for how a creature, NPC group, or faction leaves a scene: helped, calmed, fought, captured, spared, or harmed.

How it works

Use for Strixwolf and Bramble-style outcomes that should ripple later.

Step by step

- Use for Strixwolf and Bramble-style outcomes that should ripple later.
- Track what the table actually did and how the affected side now feels about them.
- Return to the fiction with the concrete result, cost, or benefit.

- Summary: A module-facing tracker for how a creature, NPC group, or faction leaves a scene: helped, calmed, fought, captured, spared, or harmed.
- When: Use for Strixwolf and Bramble-style outcomes that should ripple later.
- Not When: Do not turn it into a mandatory plot lock; it records consequence, not a required solution.
- Question: What are we tracking?
- Answer: Track what the table actually did and how the affected side now feels about them.
- Example: The Strixwolf instance records whether the party calmed, fed, fought, or frightened the mother; the Bramble instance records parley, mercy, violence, or capture.
