Player text

A wall of thorn opens where there was only forest a moment ago. The path inside is green, narrow, and warm, as if the briar itself is holding its breath to let you pass. Lantern-light glows deeper in, touching salvaged papers, careful maps, and faces waiting to see what kind of people you are.

Public objective

A wall of thorn opens where there was only forest a moment ago. The path inside is green, narrow, and warm, as if the briar itself is holding its breath to let you pass. Lantern-light glows deeper in, touching salvaged papers, careful maps, and faces waiting to see what kind of people you are.

- path inside is green, narrow, and warm. Lantern-light glows deeper in, touching salvaged papers, careful maps, and faces waiting to see what kind of people you are.
- Gmchecklist: Use only after deep trust, guide, or Kyle-confirmed canon acceptance. Keep it as evidence refuge, not final exposition chamber. Give the Act 2 slice: manufactured-danger thread, not the full ward economy. Return the party toward Hush with stronger questions.
 - Gmprivate: Atlas-original proposed canon. Flag remains open for Kyle. This is the Union case file, not a courtroom verdict.
 - Playertakeaway: A wall of thorn opens where there was only forest a moment ago. The path inside is green, narrow, and warm, as if the briar itself is holding its breath to let you pass. Lantern-light glows deeper in, touching salvaged papers, careful maps, and faces waiting to see what kind of people you are.
 - Storytakeaway: The living refuge turns the faction from roadside opposition into a hidden community with proof and leadership.
 - Mechanictakeaway: Deep trust unlocks navigation, evidence reading, and future ally consequences.

- Takeawayhelp: Player takeaway Deep trust opened the strongest Act 2 discovery space. "You are here because someone decided you might carry truth without turning it into another weapon." "You can study the evidence hollow, speak with the council, ask for a guide, offer protection, or leave without taking anything." The player action should honor trust. The map is optional payoff, not a mandatory lore room. instinct knowledge presence gm-moves Story takeaway The living refuge turns the faction from roadside opposition into a hidden community with proof and leadership. "The road showed you desperate people. This place shows you organization, memory, and proof." "The documents point to incident timing, route choices, and danger claims that do not line up. They are strong evidence, not the final answer." Keep the campaign mystery alive. The Briar strengthens suspicion and creates allies, but does not resolve the whole antagonist machine. instinct knowledge presence gm-moves Mechanic takeaway Deep trust unlocks navigation, evidence reading, and future ally consequences.
